Erik Assadourian is a Senior Fellow at the Worldwatch Institute, where he has studied cultural change, consumerism, sustainability education, economic degrowth, ecological ethics, corporate responsibility, and sustainable communities over the past 15 years. Erik has directed two editions of Vital Signs and five editions of State of the World, including the upcoming State of the World 2017.

Every two years the Church of the Crossroads, a United Church of Christ Just Peace, Open and Affirming and Greening Congregation, holds the Umematsu and Yasu Watada Lectures on Peace, Social Justice and the Environment with support from The Watada Lectures Fund, established by Kathy Watada Wurfel and David Wurfel. The public is invited to attend the 2016 lectures at Church of the Crossroads and UH-Mānoa.
