

BAHÁ'Í FAITH
KO'OLAUPOKO

THE INTERFAITH ALLIANCE
HAWAII

YOU are invited!

Join us for the fourth of five remarkable public discourses that explores new ways to foster transformative communities.

These informal gatherings help people thrive as they overcome fear, division, and despair. We promote a shared sense of spiritual connection that can move humanity toward a more loving world. You don't want to miss these distinguished educators who will dig deep and discuss aspects of the education environment in Hawai'i.

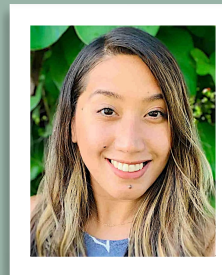

THE POWER OF COURAGEOUS COMPASSION

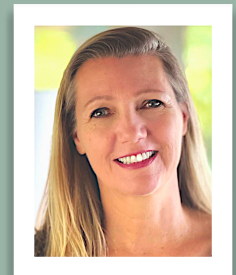

Meleanna Aluli Meyer is an 'Oiwi activist, filmmaker, and award-winning visual artist and educator. Her practice reflects a visionary works that weave culture, reconciliation, healing, and support of 'ike Hawai'i (Hawaiian knowledge).

Deborah Bond-Upson is President of Parents for Public Schools of Hawai'i and also Interim Director of H'EE Coalition facilitating collaboration of organizations supporting Hawai'i excellence and equity in education.

Amber Pomaikalani Leon Guerrero is the Director of Student Success at Kūlia Academy, the first school in the United States to offer a comprehensive 7-year Artificial Intelligence and Data Science program.

Renee Dieperink is transformative educator advancing equity in education, particularly for autistic nonspeaking students working to engage more fully with the world around them.

When: Wednesday, September 17, 2025

Time: 7:00pm - 9:00pm

BAHÁ'Í NATIONAL CENTER HAWAII

Where: 3264 Allan Place, Honolulu, HI 96817

RSVP (808) 909-6550 by September 15

Free and open to all

