YOU are invited!

Join us throughout 2025 for five remarkable gatherings of public discourse that explores new ways to foster transforming communities. These informal gatherings are meant to help people thrive and develop a shared sense of spiritual connection in an effort to move humanity toward a more loving world - using the power of courageous compassion to overcome fear, division, and despair.

The Bahá'ís of Ko'olaupoko and The Interfaith Alliance of Hawaii invite you to the launch of our Inaugural Public Discourse during Black History Month that will feature three distinguished panelists discussing...
